

Did you know?

Your pharmacists can prescribe medications for these conditions*:

- Allergic Rhinitis
- Calluses and Corns
- Cold Sores (Herpes labialis)
- Contact Allergic Dermatitis
- Dandruff
- Dysmenorrhea
- Dyspepsia
- Emergency Contraception
- Fungal Infections of the Skin
- Gastro-esophageal Reflux Disease (GERD)
- Hemorrhoids
- Herpes Simplex
- Impetigo
- Lyme Disease prophylaxis after a tick bite
- Mild Acne
- Mild Headache
- Mild to Moderate Eczema

- Mild Urticaria (including bites and stings)
- Minor Joint Pain
- Minor Muscle Pain
- Minor Sleep Disorders
- Nasal Congestion
- Nausea
- Nicotine dependence
- Non-infectious Diarrhea
- Oral Fungal Infection (thrush)
- Oral Ulcers
- Threadworms and Pinworms
- Upper respiratory tract conditions
- Urinary Tract Infection
- Vaginal Candidiasis
- Warts (excluding facial and genital)
- Xerophthalmia (dry eyes)

*Conditions may apply. Ask us for details.

